

Construction Site Management Training

Global Environmental Network, Inc.

www.My-DVBE.com

(p) 800.230.6944 (f) 714.479.0809

Keep Your SWPPP Permit! Courses Available for the NEW CalTrans Construction Site Management Training Requirement

CSM consist of controlling potential sources of water pollution before they come in contact with storm water systems or watercourses.

Who should attend:

Project Managers, Superintendents, Foremen, Owners, Developers, Engineering Contractors, Building Contractors, Inspectors, and Engineers.

This course is designed to prepare construction project personnel to:

- Understand the basic requirements of pollution prevention laws and regulations in California.
- Have the ability to follow the instructions for installing, inspecting, and maintaining the pollution control BMP's or practices that have been selected for use during construction
- Implement Material pollution prevention and control.
- Implement Waste management & Non-storm water management.
- Learn how to identify and handle hazardous substance.
- Learn about potential dangers to humans and the environment from spills and leaks or exposure to toxic or hazardous substances.

ANNOUNCING...

ON SITE 2-HR Train the Trainer Course which immediately follows the Construction Site Management Training class.

Train others with confidence. You will receive:

- CD with powerpoint presentation that is clear, concise, and comprehensive.
- Field Manual that is step-by-step, well-organized, and easily understood by others.
- Job Site consultation allows us to cater training to your specific job site.

Call 800-230-6944 for more info!

Global Environmental Network, Inc.

SBE/DVBE #24765 & Hubzone Company with offices in Santa Ana and Oakland, California!

Your Project Supports Disabled Veterans